Why Not Put This New Music Book and an Orchestration Into Your Sunday School Before Christmas?

IF you cannot spare the cash just now, we will trust you. With good music and everybody singing, the dollars can be easily collected. "SUNDAY SCHOOL VOICES" was built to succeed. A committee of twelve, and Charles H. Gabriel, one of the famous men of to-day, did the work. A modern book for to-day's needs. Well suited to all ages and classes. A host of new songs. Many of the best of the old. 229 numbers. 89 writers. 50 Christmas, Easter and Children's Day songs. This means no expenditure for two years for concert programs. An orchestration for ten instruments. Off the press only a few months. Several editions already sold. The pages are extra large and the type is easily read. This month and next we offer the best style of binding, cloth, at $25-the-100, which is the price of the inferior, board edition. This is a concession of $5-the-100! 60 days' credit allowed, when requested. A returnable sample copy for examination mailed free to Sunday School superintendents and music committees.

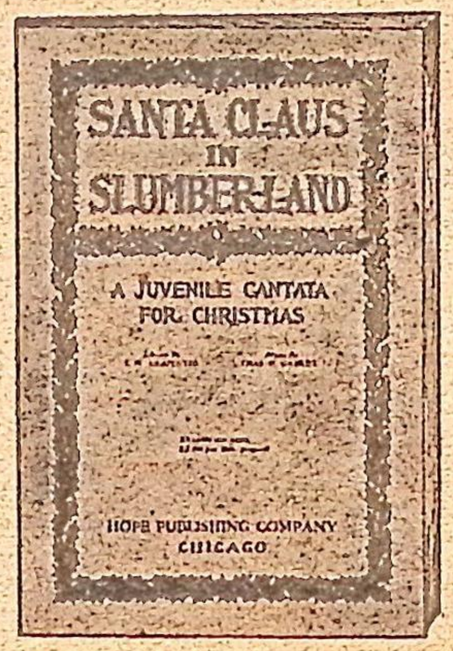
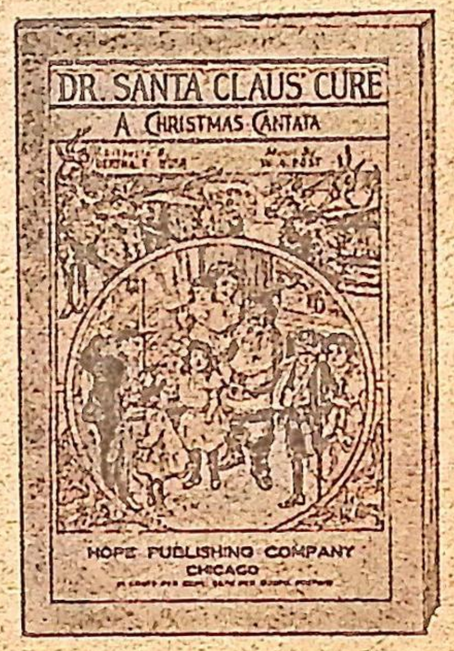
COUPON No. 1876





OFFER ONE: Return this coupon No. 1876 before Dec. 5, 1910, with 10 cents in stamps, and we will mail you a returnable-free-for-examination-package, containing a sample copy of each of the above Christmas cantatas, containing 36 to 48 pages each, worth: in lots of 1 to 9, 25 cents; 10 to 19, 20 cents; 20 and up, 15 cents a copy, postpaid. You will be expected to retain only one of these and to return the remaining three, postpaid, within ten days, unless it is your wish to purchase at the regular price of 25 cents a copy.

OFFER TWO: The four cantatas mentioned above, worth $1.00, may be secured if this coupon is returned at once with only 30 cents. We advise the acceptance of this latter offer, as the transaction is then closed with your first remittance.

Whether OFFER ONE or TWO is accepted, only one set of cantatas is obtainable at the reduced sample-copy price, and this coupon must positively be returned with the required remittance. Only one set of these samples will be allowed to any one Sunday School. For this reason, we must ask you to insert the name of your Sunday School on the margin below.
